Sir

We, the lakhs of members of All India Federation of University & College Teachers' Organizations (AIFUCTO), the only National Federation of teachers of universities & colleges in India, are extremely worried at the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD) not yet giving approval to the UGC decisions regarding the 3rd amendments of UGC Regulations 2010 as per the recommendations of Regulations Anomaly Committee. The UGC wrote seeking your approval on 23rd May, 2014. We are worried for the inordinate delay & request you to approve the decision immediately. Thousands of teachers across the country are waiting for the necessary UGC notification of 3rd amendment involving Roll Out dates for their promotions.

Another very important decision of UGC regarding the amendments of UGC PhD Regulations is also pending at the Ministry of Human Resource Development. We are disappointed and shocked at your not giving our leadership an appointment for last nine months in spite of repeated requests. AIFUCTO wrote to you on February 24, 2015 about the program and requested you to meet the Joint Forum of teachers in higher education. Thousands of members of AIFUCTO, DUTA and JNUTA demonstrated at Jantar Mantar on March 13, 2015, and courted arrest. Again you did not meet our leadership or even replied to our repeated request which is in sharp contrast with our past experience. We are shocked at this unprecedented indifference. We urge you to approve UGC decisions immediately and meet the leaders of AIFUCTO, DUTA, JNUTA, and others to discuss other very important issues.

In this context, we wish to inform you that AIFUCTO has been playing a positive role in shaping the policies of the successive governments on higher education for the past five decades. All the previous governments recognized our contribution & roles and invited us for discussion on vital issues apart from our professional demands.

We strongly urge you to take cognizance of our just grievance and take immediate measures to start a dialogue.

Yours Sincerely,

Haryana College Teachers' Association (HCTA)
