To

The Hon'able Minister HRD,
Govt. of India,
New Delhi

Sub: Dharna and Protest action on 07 August 2015 as per AIFUCTO Call.

Hon'able Madam,

Most respectfully we wish to submit that university and college teachers of the country are protesting under the banner of All India Federation of University and College Teachers' Organisations (AIFUCTO) today i.e. 07 August, 2015. We the university and college teachers of Haryana are also protesting with the teaching fraternity of the country for not accepting our long standing demands. The Govt. of India has already constituted 7th pay commission more than a year ago but the UGC pay review committee has not yet been constituted. We request you that it should be constituted immediately. The major issues which need urgent resolution are as given below.

1. Immediately constitute VII Pay Review Committee.
2. MHRD approval of UGC decisions of 3RD amendment of UGC Regulations-2010 as per recommendations of Regulation Anomaly Committee and PhD Regulations-2009.
3. Minister-HRD appointment to AIFUCTO-FEDCUTA to discuss long standing professional demands of university and college teachers of the country.
4. SCRAP API system for promotion of teachers in higher education
5. Roll back Choice Based Credit System and Central University act 2013.
6. Extend dates for Orientation course & Refresher Course up to December, 2015.
7. UGC pay scales for all categories of teachers.
8. Stop Commercialization of Higher Education.
9. Reject pension scheme - 2004 and grant old pension scheme to university and college teachers who were appointed after 2004.
10. Consult teachers' organizations on Education Policies.

Thanking you
With regards
