Subject: - Full Pension Benefits to Teachers of Government Aided Colleges in Haryana

Sir

Most respectfully we wish to submit that the Government of Haryana has modified the Haryana Civil Services (Revised Pension) Part-II (Amendment) Rules, 2014 vide Endst. No. 2/10/2014-1 Pension Dated 29th August 2014 regarding full pension benefits to be given to Government servants including the teachers working in Government colleges once they retire after rendering the minimum qualifying service of twenty years. The teachers of Government aided colleges are also important functionaries like the teachers working in the Government colleges in Haryana and they are also governed by the same Government rules and regulations and as such full pension benefits after rendering the minimum qualifying service of twenty years shall also be given to the teachers working in the Government aided colleges of Haryana.

All the teaching fraternity of aided colleges of Haryana urge and implore you earnestly that this benefit must be implemented for the teachers of Government aided colleges urgently and without any further delay. It will be an inimitable step for the cause and betterment of higher education in the state.

With regards

Yours faithfully

(Dr. R P Saini)
